Class History

1945. Yes, it was a long time ago that 118 freshmen entered CHHS for the first time, a little scared and excited and trying desperately to look as if they'd been here for four years already. The first year was mostly uneventful as far as accomplishments go. We were busy adjusting ourselves to the new schedule, making friends, joining clubs, and some of us were even taking time out to study! We did give a bang-up Sadie Hawkins' Day Festival under the leadership of class president, John Jernigan.

1946 was an exciting year. Early in the spring we moved into the new building, new wing, rather. We had been looking forward to it for months. It was a glorious change from the dungeon darkness of the Grammar School basement, and we really felt like high school students. Collier Hill was our president this year, and our topic of conversation usually centered around Mr. Pittman, without whom life would have been dull indeed.

Bill Bland, president, got things started in a big way during our junior year. We sold magazines like mad, hawked flowers at football games, slaved on a junior play which was a riot in more ways than one, and in all we turned up with $537.50 for our Junior-Senior prom. With gay and colorful decorations done on the circus theme we turned Carolina Inn's ballroom into an exciting carnival spot for an evening. Result: the best Junior-Senior in school history! The year was marked by frequent and stormy class meetings, but we managed to save $110 to start the Hilllife fund

As is usual, our activities didn't really branch out until 1948, our last year at CHHS. We had now dwindled to 38 boys and 37 girls, as compared to our original number of 118. Guided by seniors, the Proconian expanded to a larger bi-monthly and captured good ratings in critical contests. It even managed to save over $100 for next year, an unprecedented happening. Bill Bland, student body president, helped promote the paper drives and carried on a never-ending campaign for campus cleanliness. The Hilllife, edited by Jane Webb and Bill Foister, expanded its Junior section. Marvel of all marvels, it came out on schedule! We saw a Rec Club formed, witnessed the Scroll magazine being revived. Two issues of the Scroll were printed during the last four months of the school year. We grew up a lot that year with the draft and war possibilities getting front page attention. We set a record for joining extra-curricular activities, and senior class members really shone in sports. However, our brighter underclassmen outshone us in the matter of good grades.

We lost some of our classmates to other schools, and not all of us graduated that had started out. But we had a fine rich time. We are leaving a top class student body and we certainly aren't afraid for the future of our school. We just wish we could be around to see the things that will surely happen in the near future. Other graduating classes will see a complete new building, an enlarged student body of 500 or more, a new athletic field, a more modern Rec, more money for the school's publications, a printed Scroll, and new school busses. We just can't help being a little wistful as we close one more chapter of our short lives. This is a four-year period we will never forget. To all the senior classes yet to be, good luck! And to dear ole CHHS, so long!

I was a senior once,
Then I was proud to be one.
But I will tell you now,
I'd rather see than be one.

CLASS OF '49 HAS REUNION

The little village of Chapel Hill was yesterday the scene of the 1949 Class Reunion. Most of the members came from Hollywood where they are making movies (?) and big money (?). The reunion was held at the outdoor pool of Woollen Gym in order to prevent homesickness.

Among the personalities was Director Bill Bland and his newest star, Jane Cate. Branson Hobbs, the great pretzel manufacturer and movie producer, was also there looking for some place to spend his money. Roger Peele, North Carolina Senator, was the guest of honor.

Anne Voorhis and Hubert Durham, currently starring in "Granny's Grinning Grandchildren", were seen amid the group, grinning as usual.

A special treat for the guests was Victor Hartung, famous violinist, who played on his two string violin. Vic says that two strings help him avoid confusion of strings and do not make as much noise.

P. H. Quinlan of the radio show "Quinlan Quibbles" and bandleader Clyde Jefferson were sporting new convertibles and new blondes.

The reunion also included some cheers led by Nancy Blocksidge, Pro-cheerleader. Nancy is working for Campbells Soup now. She is the author of that famous yell, "Campells, Campbells soup, soup, soup. Come on gang, let's root, root!"

Another famous personality at the reunion was Bill

Foister, photographic editor for Esquire Magazine. He brought his pretty pin-up, Trillis Hackney, with him and they made quite a splash (both of them fell into the pool).

The climax of the reunion was reached when Bill Leighton, founder of the newly formed "Down with Women Club", made a speech on "The Woman's Place is In the Home". After his speech he was mobbed by a group of indignant women led by Betsy Teague and Dana Phipps.

The reunion ended by serving refreshments prepared by Sylvia Sparrow, and the guests enjoyed the cold coffee and hot cookies very much.

CARNIVAL COMES TO TOWN

"Come on, let's go to the Carnival" was the familiar saying in town yesterday, as John Jernigan brought his Hollywood Carnival to town. The Carnival had many acts including the "Whirling Girlies Floorshow" starring Barbara Andrews, Lenorris Tripp, and Evangeline Crawford. Don Mullis was master of ceremonies, but he had to be replaced because he kept "hooking" pretty girls with the end of his cane.

If you heard a banjo, that was Doug Harrell and his minstrels. Billy Watts was singing.

There was also a midget act starring Patsy Council.

Ann Abernathy had her girls' basketball team at the carnival for a game with the All-American Peroxides.

NEWS OF COURTS

Mary Kellam was given a ticket for parking on the sidewalk by Sheriff Wayne Ellington. She was fined and advised to get a driver's license.

A party given by Gene Duke at "Harry's" was raided last night. The participants pleaded insanity and were released.

Bobby McFarling sailed his yacht up Morgan's Creek to get to the reunion and was jailed for trespassing. Alfred Stanley, famous movie scenery painter, was on board the yacht and was arrested as a stow-away.

NEWS BRIEFS

Mrs. Woods finally let "Bonehead" Williams into her typing class.

Billie "Naive" Suitt has gone to Russia. Bob Phillips told her that Russia was under water and so she has gone to "sea".

Jackie Crawford, chauffeur for Connie Delancy, won the national record for wrecking the most cars.

Ernest Brockwell won the contest of Mr. Laziest America, and true to his title he sits on his throne from morning till night with his harem of admiring women around him, namely, (the one) Betty June Collins, Faye Hogan, Jeanne LeClair, and Betty Jean Earnhardt.

SPORTS

Today, Chapel Hill had a very special treat in football. There was a benefit game by some of the former stars of C.H.H.S. The proceeds from the game went toward the buying of a school bus for athletic events for the school.

The game was held on the school field, which has new lights, in the customary downpour of rain. The game was sparked by the well-known team, Bill Butler and Collier Hill. They made a total of 57 points. Jack Pendergrass swam through the enemy line for six more points. Russell Perry almost made six points, but what he thought was the ball turned out to be the head of an over-anxious spectator, Charles Williams.

SOCIETY

Sue Moore and Jeanette Sloan were married to John Hoenig and Frank Fearrington respectively. The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jessie Basnight. The brides were given away by Howard Hearne. Derith Alexander and Claire Russell were bridesmaids.

The church was decorated by the famous decorators Dot Durham and Ivalee Hill. They used the pattern of "three feathers". Each of the brides carried a bouquet of "four roses".

Herbert Pendergraft sang a solo accompanied by Betty Brown at the piano. The ceremony was completed by a special poem, "What Marriage Means to Me", by Frances Brewer.

Miss Margaret Ferguson entertained Miss Peggie Maynard and other guests at a special tea at her home yesterday. Janet Green, editor of Life magazine and originator of comic strips in her magazine, was the guest of honor.

The guests were served pine floats (toothpicks floating in water) and hardtack.

Last Will and Testament

We, the members of the Senior Class being of sound (?) mind and body do hereby bequeath, bestow, and devise our best and our worst in these items below:

- Item 1. We, Anne Voorhis and Derith Alexander, leave our flirting ways behind us and enter into a more dignified state of mind.
- Item 2. We, Carlyle Harrison and Bobby McFarling, leave our witty puns and ability to keep a class laughing to future student teachers of C. H. H. S.
- Item 3. We, Marie Johnson Lucas and Sue Moore Hoenig, leave a manual "How to Get a Man" on the library shelf. (To be taken out only overnight.)
- Item 4. We, Bill Leighton and Bill Foister, leave pride in our swimming teams to all future mermen of C. H. H. S.
- Item 5. I, Jane Webb, leave my loud mouth to Ruth Benson because hers isn't loud enough.
- Item 6. We, Clyde Jefferson and Don Mullis, leave our friendly personalities and helpfulness to Sam Emory.
- Item 7. I, Branson Hobbs, do leave C. H. H. S. in order to make some dough. (Pretzel dough, that is!)
- Item 8. I, Fay Hogan, do leave my lanky framework to Gay Hogan, my dear cousin.
- Item 9. I, Peggy Maynard, leave my winning smile and sweet personality to Jane Berryhill.
- Item 10. I, Jean Mann, leave my expert typing to anyone who can master it.
- Item 11. We, Julia Hutchins and Betsy Teague, leave our books behind us in order to lead a gay life.
- Item 12. We, Connie Delancey and Billie Suite, leave our ability to believe ANYTHING to Allan Markham and Tad McGavran.
- Item 13. The midget quartet (Bill Bland, Patsy Council, Francis Brewer, Clyde Pickard) leave to Frances Clark and Marcelle Smith the warning to drink lots of milk and to never smoke!
- Item 14. I, Betty June Collins, leave my Y-Teens secretarial troubles to next year's secretary, hoping she will be able to write faster than I.
- Item 15. I, Margaret Ferguson, would leave my Old Golds to Jean Caldwell, but since she only kills Luckies, I will take 'em with me.
- Item 16. I, Wayne Ellington, with tears leave behind my only true love, Stella Crawford.
- Item 17. We, Betty Jeanne Earnhardt and Evangeline Crawford, leave Bookkeeping wholly to Mrs. Woods.
- Item 18. We, Jackie Crawford and Trillis Hackney, leave our witty humor and shy ways to Patsy Ellinger and Evelyn Matthews so they can laugh as loud as we.
- Item 19. I, Lenorris Tripp, leave my ability to be a lady to Catherine Smith and Ruth Benson on condition they each take an equal portion.
- Item 20. We, Joyce Oakley and Jeanne LeClair, leave our love for English (????) to Miss Lewis hoping she will have the patience to contend with next year's class.
- Item 21. We, Howard Hearne and W. B. Stintson, leave history to the dogs.
- Item 22. I, Dana Phipps, leave my daintiness and tiny feet to Charles Creel.
- Item 23. We, Doug Harrell and Peggie Martindale, hope that C. H. H. S. will be good to Betsy Meadows and Paul Williams until they get into the big wide world.
- Item 24. I, Hubert Durham, leave the teachers broken hearts behind as they see me leave this dear place.
- Item 25. I, Barbara Andrews, leave phys. ed. to Coach Grice and Coach Henry, hoping I haven't broken too many baseball bats.
- Item 26. I, Chaire Russell, depart from C. H. H. S. in style in Charles' dignified (bang!) jalopy.
- Item 27. We, Dot Durham and Anne Abernathy, leave our basketball ability to Tina Perry and Jean Caldwell in hopes that next year's team will be the best ever!

Last Will and Testament

- Item 28. I, Bill Butler, leave my fighting team spirit to all the students of C. H. H. S.
- Item 29. I, Betty Brown, leave my love of music and talent for playing the piano to Joe Jones.
- Item 30. I, Gene Duke, leave behind with deep regrets all the girls of C. H. H. S.
- Item 31. We, John Jernigan and Bob Phillips, leave our picture in the annual for all the gals to swoon over.
- Item 32. We, the Hill Brothers, Collier and "Bomber", leave our sports ability to the Maultsby Brothers, Tom and Jack.
- Item 33. I, Jesse Basnight, leave my love for the great out-of-doors to all the Boy Scouts in C. H. H. S.
- Item 34. I, Nancy Blocksidge, leave to Tommy Gravitt, a standing date to meet him at the movies every Saturday night.
- Item 35. We, Jane Cate and Eloise Fogleman, leave the memory of our beauty to all the boys of the underclasses.
- Item 36. We, Vic Hartung and Sonny Pendergraph, leave chemistry—Period! !
- Item 37. I, Mary Kellam, leave to Fenno McGinty the secret of how to achieve a "perfect squelch".
- Item 38. I, Janet Green, leave all my Proconian worries to any fool who will take them over!
- Item 39. We, Ernest Brockwell and Hilbert Williams, leave our record of being the laziest people ever to graduate from high school.
- Item 40. We, Dan Dyson and Sally Mason, leave to all the "cats" of C. H. H. S. the hopes that they'll one day be able to master jitterbugging.
- Item 41. We, Jack Pendergrass and Russell Perry, leave the C. H. H. S. football teams with the hopes that our places in the line-up will be capably filled.
- Item 42. I, Joyce Williams, leave C. H. H. S., still undecided between George and Charles.
- Item 43. I, Charles Williams, leave my love and knowledge of agriculture to all future farmers of America.
- Item 44. I, Jeanette Sloan, leave C. H. H. S. memories to all my friends whom I have left behind.
- Item 45. I, Jimmy Shotts, leave the U. N. O. to Miss Davis.
- Item 46. I, P. H. Quinlan, leave to join the circus.

We do hereby afix our signature on this 3rd day of June, Nineteen-hundred and forty-nine.

Class Poem

Our souls, until we die, O'stay
Strung to beauty; and our minds,
Still quiver fiery day to day
No matter what our feet may find.

Along the prisoned paths to go,
Arms, have strength to burst the bars;
Though we be earth-born we must know
The feel of wind against the stars.

Hearts, never rest will come to thee,
Until we count our dreams all won;
Through bitter tears, our eyes, O'see
The constant shining of the sun.

Against what seemed insurmountable obstacles the Senior Class of '49 pulled through. The staff (whose sanity is now doubtful) found themselves in the midst of problems never even conceived before in the production of a year book. With increased prices, the book had to be cut down and we soon feared students would think it merely another Proconian with a few more pictures than usual. Somehow, by hair pulling and burning of the midnight electricity, we made it, and we sincerely hope this year's Hilllife will stand as a remembrance not only of our class, but also as an example to future classes, that it can be done.

Fourth Row: George McGinty, Bob Linker, Lloyd Pendergrass.

The Student Council this year, under the capable leadership of President Bill Bland, made new headway. Undertaking the paper drives started the preceding year, the Council was able, with the cooperation of the student body, to contribute to the upkeep of the "Rec". A Recreation Committee was also established to work hand in hand with the "Rec" leaders to promote a feeling of responsibility among the students.

For the first time in several years, delegates were sent to the North Carolina Student Council Congress. Many new ideas were recognized and conveyed to our council, and it inspired the hope of someday having the delegation at Chapel Hill High.

One of the major undertakings of the Council was to work out a new point system. Along with this, several committees were set up. The Scrapbook Committee made and kept a scrapbook of the projects of the Student Association; the Constitution Committee better acquainted the students and members of the council with the constitution; the Ways-And-Means Committee probed into ways of making money; and the Social Committee was in charge of all social activities in the school.

With the good will of the students, council members, Mr. Davis, and the faculty advisers, the Student Council this year was able to accomplish a great deal; and Chapel Hill High School passed through another year of successful Student Government.

Classes may come and go, but the Proconian, in some form or other, remains. The year, 1949, was breathless and exciting for the staff. The paper was expanded to a larger bi-monthly, and the first flysheet in the paper's history was added in the Christmas issue. Despite a low 50c subscription rate for the 16 issues, financial worries were pared to a minimum. Ten delegates attended the SIPA convention in April. The year was climaxed by the election of new staff members, although a note of tragedy was struck as the old staff staggered off for a well-earned stay in the Bide-A-Wee Rest Home!

The "pigskin warriors" of 1948-49, boosted by the outstanding coaching of Bill Grice and his assistants Hardy Henry, Ben Perry and Tom Kain, did a wonderful job on the gridiron this season.

By winning eight games and loosing none, the Wildcats were able to win the North Central Conference and represent this district for the eastern champion. The "Cats" played a six to six deadlock with Laurinburg, only losing their chance for the state title by a draw from the hat.

The Senior Class proudly salutes the fine gridiron of 1948-'49.

This past season the Chapel Hill quintet did a marvelous job by completing their eighteen game season undefeated. The Hillians were coached by Bill Grice, who already had coached an undefeated football season.

The Wildcats were led by the sharp shooting of Ivalee Hill and Robert "Rebound" Phillips.

After their regular season the Wildcats entered the Class A tournament, as well as the Elks Tournament which was held in Sanford.

Chapel Hill High School is proud of its fine basketball team and its coach.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Coach

Hardy Henry

Second Row: Coach Hardy Henry, Jake McLaughlin, Frank Giles, Bob Patterson, "Brownie" Fitch.

Third Row: John Gwynn, Roger Peele, Allan Markham, R. B. Fitch, Gene Duke.

The Junior Varsity was led by the fine coaching of Hardy Henry. Coach Henry, as he is better known, took a group of hard working basketball players and turned out a fine team. Although the Jr. Vs didn't go undefeated they did a wonderful job. Some of the sharp shooters for the J. Vs are Sidney "Littledipper" Sparrow, "Easy" Eddie Mann, Bucky Vickers and Dewey Wright.

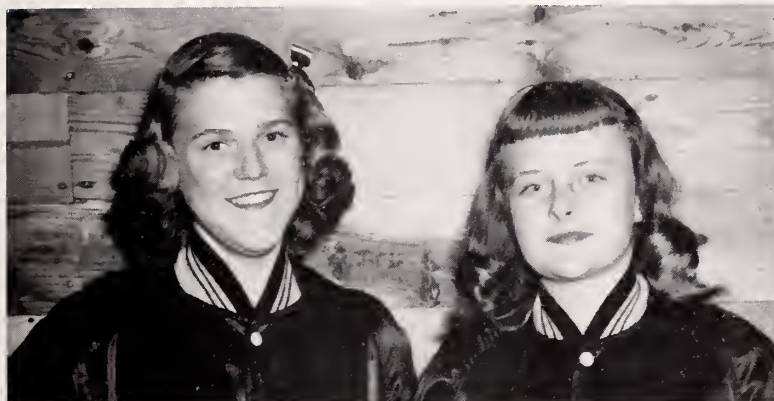

The J. Vs. showed up well against their opponents and their coach did a fine job. Several of the J. Vs. are sure to fill in the vacancies left by the graduating seniors.

Second Row: Margaret Ferguson, Sara Rose, Doris Alexander.*

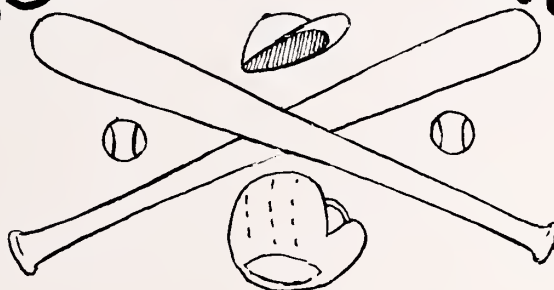

The 1948-1949 girls' basketball team, coached by Miss Sybil Mitchell, had another unsuccessful season, if winning games is all one considers. Even though the Kittens played hard clean ball and held high spirits, they were unable to overcome the powerful opponents they met on the hardwood.

The team was centered around several returning letterwomen: Jane Webb, Dot Durham, Ann Abernathy, and Nancy Blocksidge. To these were added Beth Lloyd, Judy Parker, Earlene Perry, Faye Hogan, and Anne Umstead.

This year's Kittens were very fortunate in having Miss Mitchell, graduate student at the University, to coach them. Assisting her was Coach Hardy Henry, boys' Jayvee Coach.

Although the team came out on the losing end this season, the future looks bright for coming years, with some of this year's team coming back and those undying freshmen coming in.

Baseball Hi-lites

Baseball Continued

Last season the "WILDCATS" went through their schedule with twelve victories and one defeat. This defeat occurred when Chapel Hill met Dunn in its second game of the season. Dunn scored a three (3) to two (2) victory over the "WILDCATS". On a return game Chapel Hill struck back and defeated Dunn twenty-three (23) to one (1). The "WILDCATS", who were coached by Cecil Longest last season, did a wonderful job.

Chapel Hill won the North Central Conference for their third consecutive time in three years.

1923 → The Orange Printshop ← 1949

In the 26 years that the Orange Printshop has been in business it has made many faithful friends, who have chosen to bring all their printing needs to us, because they have found that every job is handled with neat, attractive workmanship and prompt, courteous service.

We take pride not only in the quality of our printing but in the privilege and responsibility of belonging to a profession without which there would be no accurate record of the past, no wide exchange of ideas, and no progress.

Every printing job is important to us, and whether yours is small or large it will be printed with care in every detail to make it "just what you want." Our greatest satisfaction is in satisfying you.
